Geared Up—

The proper balance of physical and mental powers for efficient endeavor are directly related to certain mineral elements—phosphate of potash, etc., in one's daily food.

These vital properties—often lacking in the usual dietary—are supplied in splendid proportion in the famous pure food

Grape-Nuts

Made of whole wheat and malted barley, this delicious food is long baked, hence easy and quick of digestion, yielding a wonderful return of mental and physical energy.

Grape-Nuts comes in the form of crisp granules of nut-like flavor, ready to serve directly the package is opened. With cream or good milk, Grape-Nuts is a splendidly balanced food and makes for efficiency.

"There's a Reason"

Died.

J. W. Abbott died in Ashland at about 1 o'clock on the morning of May 22 at the age of 75 years. Mr. Abbott was born in Missouri and came to Oregon in 1874. He settled near what is now Talent and resided there until 1906, when he moved to Ashland. His first wife died here about eight years ago. About six years ago he was married to the wife who survives him. His children are Allen, residing in Talent; Arthur of Ashland, Mrs. Mary Garrett and Mrs. Della Walker of Bly, Mrs. G. M. Lowe of Ashland, Mrs. Lizzie Lowe of Nevada City, Cal., Mrs. Emma Edland of Roseburg, Mrs. Lena Horton of Hildebrand, Mo., Mrs. Lilly Barnett of Talent and Mrs. Edith Shelly of Portland. For many years Mr. Abbott was a member of the Baptist church at Talent, but changed his affiliation to the Methodist church on removing to Ashland. He was known by all as a conscientious, honest, hard-working man whose word was as good as his bond. Funeral services were held last Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from his late residence on Oak street. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. H. J. Van Possen. Interment took place in the Stearns cemetery at Talent.

Died.

Nora C., wife of R. C. Stevenson of Crescent City, died in Ashland Tuesday morning after a lingering illness. Mrs. Stevenson, who was 26 years, 4 months and 6 days old, was brought here several weeks ago, making the long trip over the mountains from the coast by easy stages, lying in bed made up on an auto truck. The remains were taken to Crescent City for burial. She is survived by her husband and three children, aged 8, 6 and 1 1/2 years, and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George LeClare on removing to Ashland. He was of Crescent City.
